

1 A '*' following a VTD code indicates an actual voting district. Its absence indicates that the VTD is a pseudo voting district or no information is available as to its status.

2 A '*' following a block number indicates that the block number is repeated elsewhere in the block.